ACKNOWLEDGE THE CORN.

An up the river man was in town to-day, and he says there is no great sentiment among the mill men against a law prohibiting sawmills from dumping sawdust into the river. He says it can be taken care of and made valuable as a fuel with a little care and expense, and he says that they all recognize it as an evil. Even the mill men below Truckee find it very objectionable, because it gets into their booms and fills up their dams. It also fills up the ice ponds and has to be sluiced out. But the great reasons against it are that it injures the fish and destroys valuable land in the meadows.

A QUESTION OF LAW.

There are no new facts in the matter of the failure of the Reno Savings Bank that we know of, and the case will rest on the question as to whether managers of banks have a right to go into their banks to do business outside of business hours. Bankers claim that the matter of banking hours are entirely of their own choosing and for their own convenience, and that they are not legally bound to confine themselves to any specified time. This question is a very interesting one and it may be well, for all parties, to have it settled by the courts. So it seemed to the Grand Jury at any rate, for at least 12 votes were necessary to carry the measure.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Century Magazine for February is grand in every respect. It not only has all the mechanical and intellectual excellence of its series but it has given a place to the emotion of generosity that is truly noble. Its frontispiece is an excellent portrait of the editor of its great rival, Harpers. The picture is accompanied by a biography of Mr. Curtis which is brief but full. Such incidents go a long way in forming public sentiments, especially in the young, and their tendency is good.

The New York Tribune says the lions of the town yesterday were two prize-fighters who, whenever they appeared, were followed by a mob of admirers. This was the fitting end of their triumphant journey across the country from San Francisco. At all points where it was known that Mace and his party were on the train the population of the neighborhood paid them homage. Was homage paid to science or to muscle?

Beecher is coming West next summer and will lecture all the way to California and back. Mr. Beecher once lectured in Smith's Opera House and drew well. People came from Wadsworth and all along the Truckee to hear him.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office requires that naturalization papers be produced, or evidence of their destruction shown, to entitle foreign-born citizens to land patents.

The Chinese of San Francisco pay about $20,000 annually in licenses, while it costs the city $100,000 a year to maintain the law in the Chinese quarter.

WORK RESUMED.

The Trouble at Eureka Ended by the Albion Paying Up.

EUREKA, Jan. 26.
All controversy between the Miners' Union and the Albion Mining Co. is at an end. The miners have been paid off up to January 1, and a pay-day established for the 10th of each month. Work in the mine was resumed this morning. The furnaces, which were temporarily stopped by frozen water pipes, start up to-morrow. Colonel Robinson, Superintendent of the mine, advises that hereafter (the pay-day being now fixed) no time checks will be issued or orders received on employees' wages.

A Brother and Sister Die Together.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.
A very Frenchy double suicide was discovered this morning at No. 28 Ferdinand street. Patrick Smith and his sister Kate were discovered in a small and tightly closed apartment, dead from the fumes of charcoal. Smith was aged 33 and was an engineer at the dry dock. His sister was 22, and a sewing girl. Cause of suicide unknown.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

To-Day's Session of the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

SENATE.

A number of memorials were presented to-day, also the petition of the council of six nation Indians asking recognition of their interests in certain lands in Kansas. Vance presented the credentials of the election of Ransom of North Carolina, filed. The Senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill.

The Senate Committee on Railroads to-day directed a favorable report to be made on Miller's (California) bill to authorize the Southern Pacific and other railroad companies to unite and consolidate so as to form a continuous railroad between the tidal waters of the Atlantic and Pacific.

HOUSE.

Immediately after reading the journal the tariff bill was considered. Burrows of Michigan in the chair. Bland of Missouri charged that the dominant party was attempting to choke the measure through without due consideration. In reply to Kelly's question asking authority for the statement, Bland said he had seen it stated in the public press. Regan said he heard it from a Senator who had it from the President. Kelly did not think the President proposed to offer a bribe to the Democratic party to prevent legislation on the subject.

A Sheepraiser's Romance - He Finds His Relative.

BURLINGTON, Jan. 27.

The Free Press has a story of a wealthy California sheepraiser who has been in that place the past month. He had but one relative in the world and she was a niece whose whereabouts were unknown to him for two years. He had been making an active search for her and this week succeeded in finding her. She was employed in one of the mills of this city and for several years had a hard struggle for existence. The meeting of uncle and niece was of course pleasant on both sides. The young lady has shaken the dust of the mill from her gaiters and goes with her uncle to California and affluence.

A Fight Outside of the Ring.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.

Slade, Mace and others visited several sporting houses last evening. The party went up Broadway to the Postoffice and separated, Slade and Harding going into the Astor House. The bar room was soon crowded with excited partisans, discussing the merits of Slade and Sullivan. Presently words led to blows and there was a scuffle in which plates and knives and all sorts of implements were thrown about. One man wearing a tall hat was struck by a plate of soft fried eggs that scattered all over him. Meanwhile Slade had slipped out of a side door and quiet was soon restored without the aid of the police.

The Seed Fell on Stony Ground.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.

Two middle-aged men arrived in the town of Rockville, York county, Pa., yesterday, and gave their names as Elders Jno. M. Eaton and Angus McKay of Salt Lake City, missionaries of the Church of Latter Day Saints, and announced their intention of entering at once upon the work of proselytism. A committee of young men of the town waited on them last night and warned them to leave the county within 24 hours on pain of being tarred and feathered and ridden on rails. They went away this morning.

South American Republics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

The Peruvian minister says the suggestion of peace without Bolivia will not meet with any sympathy from the legitimate Government of Peru or the people of that unfortunate republic. That suggestion is a Chilean one, not a Peruvian.

A California Senator Dines the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

Senator Miller of California entertained the President at dinner last evening. Among those invited to meet him were Justices Field, Miller and Matthews, Attorney-General Brewster, Senator Logan and Mrs. Sanderson of California.

They Would Have Made Money by Remaining Honest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

One of the counsel for defense in the star route cases informs the Post-Express that Brady, Dorsey and Vail's recent and pending trials will cost $200,000, of which Brady and Dorsey are reported to have spent nearly $75,000 each.

Wants More Gore.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.

Richard K. Fox last night authorized Harry Hill to announce that Fox was prepared to back Slade, the Australian, to fight any man in the world for $5,000 a side.

Marriage of a Mourner.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 27.

Miss Genevieve A. Martin, niece of ex-Governor Downey, was married to Barlow S. Walker at the Cathedral, by Archbishop Gibbons. Among those present were John Downey, Harvey and wife. Harvey is brother of the bride and has been married only a short time. His aunt, Mrs. Governor Downey, attended his nuptials and was on her way home accompanied by her husband when she was killed in the accident on the Southern Pacific.

Tried to Imitate California, But Failed.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 27.

Last night an express train on the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific line struck a broken rail and the chair car and sleeper went down a 40 foot embankment. There were eight passengers in the two cars, but none were seriously injured except the parties in the sleeping car.

The Legal String.

TEXARKANA, Jan. 26.

Edward Garrett (colored), who murdered his wife, was hanged to-day. He confessed the crime on the gallows, expressed repentance and met his fate bravely.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

NERVOUS FRANCE.

Items Showing How Dangerous are the Grounds on Which She Stands.

PARIS, Jan. 27.

The report that the Count de Chambord had landed in France is wholly unfounded.

The streets in first, second and eighth arrondissement in which are situated the Louvre, Bourse, Bank of France, Elyse Palace and many other public buildings has been patrolled by small detachments of infantry for several nights.

Aurelin Scholl, journalist, and Dr. Henley fought a duel with swords to-day. The latter was slightly wounded. Lobby of Havas Agency accompanied by Gaston and Berodri of the Brussels Independence Belge, called out the editor of the Nouvelle Delon to-day for having said Lebey was sold to Duc de Aumale. The editor apologized and Lebey and his friends are satisfied.

Emperor William and the Pope Making Up.

BERLIN, Jan. 27.

A letter from Emperor William to the Pope, December 22d, declares that the Pope's letter strengthened his hope that the satisfaction felt by the Pope at the re-establishment of the Prussian Legation at the Vatican will afford ground for His Holiness to reciprocate by a similar advance. The Emperor believes the advance made by the Vatican in regard to the duty of giving notice of ecclesiastical appointments to the Government is of even more interest to the Catholic Church than to the State. If the Emperor were convinced that his desire for an understanding was reciprocated he would be able to concede that the Diet should reconsider many laws which are not permanently required for the maintenance of peaceful relations with the Vatican.

Watching Them Closely.

DUBLIN, Jan. 27.

There is an underground passage between Kilmainham Court House and the jail, so no communication between prisoners and friends is possible during transit from the jail. No doubt exists that the prisoners' friends are greatly exasperated at the information the Government has received, and will avail themselves of any opportunity to take vengeance.

The Great Artist's Funeral.

JOTTINGS.

Minor Occurrences in and About Town.

The roads are in remarkably fine condition.

Grass in some places is sprouting up bright and green.

Prospectors are getting some good ore in Peavine, it is reported.

A few valley quail are being shot between here and Steamboat.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin Company played to a good audience last night.

Papeteries at Nash's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3—22, 30, 38, 44, 44.

Six large bars of bullion from Belleville came down on the V. & T. last night.

An Italian sky never covered lovelier weather than this, yet many pray for a snowstorm.

Skating seems to have lost all its charms. The weather is too warm for the exercise.

The regular dance at Reform Club Hall this evening. The floor is in excellent condition.

There were many strangers in town last night. The sidewalks were as full as during Fair time.

Pilot and Crab are training for the match which takes place at the Park two weeks from to-day.

The boys have a foot-ball fever just now, and the sport on the plaza brings out some very healthy kickers.

The man who squandered twenty dollars for an overcoat during the Christmas cold snap is now mad with himself.

The boys were out trying the water works this afternoon. The city pressure threw a stream to the top of Trinity Church.

It is the general opinion that if we had a good snowstorm it would be of great benefit to the town and surrounding country.

The wooden-leg Indian is said to be purveyor of whiskey for all the aborigines hereabout, being middle man for Chinese traders.

For a nice clean shave or first-class hair-cut and shampoo, go to John Belz's Palace Barber Shop. Get trimmed up for Sunday.

A female patient, by cunning peculiar to insane persons, escaped from the asylum this morning, but was recaptured after a few hours' search.

O'Neil says he put the smallest shoes on the Uncle Tom Cabin mule that were ever nailed to a hoof. The four of them weighed less than eight ounces, including nails.

A pack-train came in this afternoon from a mine about three miles from here, owned by Vallancourt and Loomis, with a load of ore to be sent to San Francisco for testing a new concentrator.

There is some well digging going on on the south side of the river. A great many of the wells are not dug deep enough, and when the moisture is drawn in the ground it is easier to strike the bottom of the well than the water.

Nels. Hammond received a fine cane from Arizona yesterday. It is nearly as large as a telegraph pole and weighs about two ounces, being the dried pith of the American alce plant. He is just as proud of it, however, as if it were rosewood.

One of the important uses of the telegraph instrument at the private house is to enable the young school girls to send a message to their best beaux to come and see them in the evening. A knowledge of telegraphy is a big thing, and the peanut line is a great institution.

No. 1 hose boys had their cart out this afternoon, to see how it looks by daylight. A little practice will do no harm. They will soon learn that they can't readily connect a six-inch hose with a four-inch orifice. It is like trying to get six gallons of whiskey into a four-gallon keg.

Several old Bodieites who have been to Oregon and Washington Territory in search of the "Golden Fleece," arrived in Reno this morning, on their way back to Mono county. They would rather be railroad ties in Bodie than millionaires in a country where a man has to put on a life-preserver when he goes to bed.

Coleman & Pechner have been improving and adding to their bathing and tonorial establishment until they have made it thoroughly complete. It is now one of the best in the State. They have introduced some features altogether new, particularly that of giving each customer a semi-shampoo after a shave. This is an entirely new thing, and takes well.

Look Out, Boys, or You'll Get Arrested.

Boys are in the habit of getting upon the pilot of the engine that pulls in the noon train, so that the engineer cannot see them, incurring danger of being thrown off and run over. Officer Mereson intends to arrest all such venturesome youngsters next week, by doing which he will defer funeral expenses for some of them. Undertakers, of course, are opposed to his meddling with the matter.

Closed for Repairs.

After next Monday the Nevada and Oregon train will be temporarily drawn off. The locomotive needs repairs, etc.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

Old Names Retiring and New Ones Coming In.

DISCOURAGEMENT NOT THE CAUSE.

Reno's Friends Not Leaving, But New Ones Coming In.

PROSPECTS GOOD AS EVER.

It afforded a genuine surprise to people here to see such an important sale as that announced in yesterday's GAZETTE. The bargain was made and the sale had taken place before any one but the parties interested knew anything about it, although it has been working for two or three months. The big double store without Manning presiding seems like a church without a preacher. He came here from the foothills of California when the track touched the valley and has been here ever since. His partner, William Duck, and his own long and successful career at Forest Hill, Alta and other points, gave them an acquaintance and reputation here that at once gave the firm the lead. Mr. Manning has been a valuable friend to Reno. He has been a good and safe counsellor on many a difficult day and his efforts and money were never refused to anything that seemed to him likely to be a benefit to the town or country tributary to it. Fortunately Reno is not to lose Mr. Manning, but he will engage in some line of business again when he sees a favorable opportunity. His late partner, W. F. Berry, came in from the North, where he had done a leading business and went to work with a will to fill the place made vacant by Mr. Duck. He has been a most energetic worker and will now be greatly missed. He says he never expects to resume retail business, here, but will be engaged in larger enterprises. His first work will be to try and push the N. & O. to more rapid completion.

THE NEW FIRM.

Of Berry & Boyd will strike every one as a very strong and effective combination. Mr. Boyd has been in Washoe county since it was very young and is known to everyone. His grand reputation for character and financial honor has made him invincible in politics and given him an easy victory every time he has ever taken a nomination. The same qualifications give him a special fitness for mercantile life. He is at the same time well versed in the details of business in this county and the house he now owns half of particularly, as he has been connected with it in different capacities for years. H. J. Berry has been in Reno a couple years and shows business talents of a high order. His extensive acquaintance through the northern country will now have a commercial value which he probably never anticipated. The old firm has done one of the largest businesses in Nevada for the last 10 years, and the new one will inherit all their advantages and bring in some new ones of their own.

PLUMAS ITEMS.

Driftwood From the Foot-hills of the Sierra Nevada.

The following items were "scissored" from the Greenville Bulletin of January 24th:

The water in the Round Valley reservoir is now getting low; the supply may not last over a week or two, when of necessity all the mills depending upon it for their power would be forced to stop.

Two men were recently killed at the Indian Spring mine on Butte Creek. Their names were Billy Parker and Alexander Teirna. A mass of rock fell upon them in a tunnel. One was killed instantly; the other lived only a few hours.

The Meeker Flat hydraulic claim on the north fork of Feather River has been leased by a company consisting of Messrs. Ballou, Westworth, Ware and Emmons. The company are now building a large reservoir and will begin piling as early as possible in the Spring.

TAKING HOLD.

The Gold Hill Merchants at Work in Their Reno Quarters.

The Masonic block is even more lively than usual just now, on account of the transfer which is going on of the stock of Senator Schooling to Folsom & Gallatin. No customers are turned away, however, and order will soon be restored, when a much larger stock will be found and the business correspondingly enlarged. The addition of their Gold Hill stock to their already large one now there will make one of the most complete wholesale and retail stores in this country. The new firm is a very capable and intelligent one, its members being fully alive to the needs of trade and the wants of their customers, so that they will do Reno good and at the same time build up themselves.

Another Big Sale.

Captain C. A. Bragg has sold his large lumber interests in Reno to H. W. Bragg, of Oakland, who expects to make Reno his home after a short time. The company name will remain unchanged.

QUEER FIGURES.

The report of the State Controller of Nevada shows, says the Chronicle, that while Storey county still contains more taxable property than any other county in the State with the exception of Washoe, it may be regarded as the poorest county in the State. No community in the world could be anything but a community of broken-down business men, unemployed mechanics, miners and laborers, with a terribly large percentage of indigent persons, when its annual taxes foot up nearly 5 per cent., and the property is assessed in many cases at double or treble its market value. The following table shows the total value of property in every county of the State, and also the rate of county tax collected in each:

County	Value of Property	County Tax
Churchill	$484,115 50	$9,198 19
Douglas	732,094 00	15,793 97

NO NEED OF CHANGE.

A Dealer That Has Everything Necessary for Health and Comfort.

"Men may come and men may go, but I flow on forever," says the brook; and so it is with some business houses. All around may be changed and they be unaffected. The wave of revolution which seems to be sweeping over Reno's streets has not budged the well known and reliable grocery and provision house of A. J. Clark. He remains not only unmoved, but he is growing more solid and stronger every day and has his business more firmly anchored than ever before. He is taking advantage of the reduction of Eastern rates and has become a large customer for Chicago and New York houses. His stock of cured meats is the choicest that can be got anywhere, and both customers and dealers will find his prices worthy of attention. In other lines the shelves and store-rooms will be found equally well stocked. DEER IN LASSEN.

A Change in Our Neighbor's Game Law.

The Board of Supervisors recently adopted the following regulations for the protection of deer in Lassen county:

Every person, who between the first day of January and the first day of July, in any year, hunts, takes, kills or destroys any antelope or deer, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every person, who at any time hunts, takes, kills or destroys any antelope or deer, except the same is used or sold for food in Lassen county, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every person having in his possession any of the game mentioned in the foregoing sections, at a time when it is unlawful to kill the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

These regulations change the game season from November 1st to January 1st, and make it a misdemeanor to kill deer and take them out of the county, and also punishes the killing of deer except they are actually used for food. A Sportsman's Club is being formed, the object of which is to enforce the law, and anyone detected in its violation will be prosecuted.

SCHOOL CATECHISM.

The Boy who had a Multiplication of Ditties.

A boy joining the Reno public school was catechised by the teacher as to his religious fitness, in this way: "John do you know how many Gods there are?"

The applicant for school privileges scratched his head and marshalled to his assistance a long train of thought. Finally he answered:

"Six, ma'am."

The teacher, irate at his ignorance, said:

"If you don't answer me correctly I will punish you."

The new boy surveyed the surroundings with the eye of an engineer and bolted for the door, and while fleeing from the threatened punishment he met a belated pupil on his way to school and accosted him:

"Say, how many Gods are there?"

"There is but one God," replied boy No. 2.

"Only one God—and you're going up there to school? You go up there with your little old one God, and you'll catch hell. I just left there with six and got run out."

HOGLE'S RANCH.

Feeding Beef Cattle on Thirty-Dollar Hay.

L. I. Hogle has fenced in a section near Elko, says the Independent, and three large corrals are strongly enclosed. He feeds out a ton of hay a day to his own and stock which he has in charge. No ranch in the country is managed with more skill. These corrals enclose a living spring of water which hold, the even temperature of 58 degrees. It never freezes, although this valley is proverbial for the severity of the winters. The warmth of the water attracts the water fowl. Mr. Hogle killed three from the yard nearest the barn. He has yet left about 400 tons of hay which is fed and sold out at $30 per ton on the ranch. Baled hay at the stable in town is held at $40, and if this weather continues the price will probably increase.

Farmers Say She is a Perfect Beauty.

The Chico Enterprise thus describes a cow in that place: "Five and a half feet high, splendidly proportioned and real fat—she is a monster and a beauty not to be excelled, perhaps, in the United States. The big ox which went with the circus is of medium size between her and other large cows. Her estimated weight is 2,000 pounds."

Pretty Near Home—A Brimstone Mine.

The sulphur mine a few miles north of the Humboldt House on the Central Pacific is being actively worked. The deposit is pure brimstone. All they have to do is to blast it out. Each blast sets the brimstone on fire, but they are prepared for this, and after a shot is fired they at once advance and throw water upon the burning mineral.

The Truckee Insurance.

The losses by Truckee's last fire are as follows: The owner of Mrs. Parker's house lost $2,500; insurance $2,000 in the Traders'. Mrs. Parker lost $3,000 worth of furniture, and had $2,000 insurance in the Connecticut of Hartford. Jacob Adolph, who owned the house occupied by Mrs. Fawcett, lost $1,500, and is said to have had a $500 policy in the Western Insurance Company of Toronto.

Cattle and Sheep All Right.

Cattle and sheep owners say the severe cold weather did not injure their herds or flocks. There was sufficient snow on the ground, says the Silver State, to keep those running at large from perishing with thirst, but not enough to cover the feed. So far as known the cold did not cause the death of an animal in that part of the country.

Ready to Answer.

James H. Kinkead and L. L. Crockett came in last evening to answer to the charge brought against them by the Grand Jury. They filed bonds for their appearance in the sum of $15,000 each. Friends of Mr. Kinkead had filed his bond and it had been approved before he got here.

LOGS FOR LUMBER.

Next Year's Supply Fully Equal to the Demand.

The banks of the little Truckee have already been stocked with 6,000,000 feet of logs that will be floated down next Spring for the Boca mill to saw up. Dow and McCormick are hauling them. The Pacific Lumber and Wood Company are at work hauling logs on the snow up to their railroad track. They have over 2,000,000 piled up now. They were hauling into the mill all that it could saw until the cold snap. As soon as it moderates they will run again. The Bonner mill are getting out a million and will have another million by the time the mill starts. Johnson & Longley have their contract. Weed is cutting and barking in the woods for the Boca mill. He expects to give them 2,000,000, so they will cut 8,000,000 if they use up their logs. Around Truckee all the mill men are hauling logs on the snow, and next year will be a big one for the saws.

A GOOD IDEA.

A Novel Insurance Company by California Farmers.

A novel insurance company has been started in Fresno county, Cal. It is a mutual concern, organized by the Scandinavian residents, and none but Scandinavians are admitted. The object of the association, says their by-laws, is to secure the members against losses in their horses, mules and cattle by sickness or accident. A monthly assessment of one-quarter of one per cent, is collected on all the assessed stock owned by the members, until the full sum of $50 is in the treasury. Upon the loss of any animal insured the owner receives two-thirds of the value thereof. No horse is valued at over $75, and no cow at over $45. The association provides no benefits for lost or stolen animals.

A Coat of Paint.

Next Monday the newly painted passenger coaches of the Virginia & Truckee Railroad will be put on. They are painted with a kind of yellow paint which is said to withstand the weather and the "thousand natural shocks" that cars are heir to better than any other color that has yet been tried.
